Friendly tips for a smooth application process

- Ensure your contact details we hold (especially email) are up to date, please ring the admissions office to check if in doubt, otherwise there is a risk you will miss crucial information which is sent via email. The offers are sent by post, if you move please let us know or the letter will be sent to an old address.
- When possible submit with good time before a deadline, otherwise there will be a delay in acknowledgement due to the last minute rush.
- If you wish to withdraw a candidate, please send the admissions office an email and we can remove them from the list.
